Let's show you what's happening inside...

Our state-of-the-art video otoscope system can show inside your ear canal right up to your ear drum, all visible on the colour screen.

See inside your ear like never before, with no discomfort whatsoever!

Video otoscopy allows us to clearly visualise the ear canal and ear drum by projecting an image onto a computer monitor.

Using video otoscopy, we can see first hand any conditions such as the presence or build up of wax, or debris in the canal that may cause problems with your hearing.

Give your ears a clean bill of health!

Video otoscopy ultimately provides both patients and audiologists with a greater understanding and appreciation of what is happening inside your ear.

Unblock the problem with our FREE Wax Removal Clinic

It's not the most pleasant topics to talk about, but removing ear wax can help you hear better.

Earwax is a natural substance that keeps the inner parts of your ear free from dirt and debris. But excess levels of earwax can be unsightly, cause discomfort and affect your hearing. If you think you are suffering from a build up of earwax, come and see us at the Better Hearing Clinic Event and take advantage of our FREE Wax Removal Clinic.

We will check your ear canal for signs of excess wax using the Video Otoscope system shown above.

If there is a higher than normal level of wax, our trained nurse/audiologist will remove the wax straight away.

The state-of-the-art equipment used is a ClearSound technique that requires no harsh syringing but removes any blockage with a specially designed pulse machine or a gentle wash with warm water.

"The Better Hearing Clinic Event is the perfect opportunity to give your ears a complete health check and it may be something as simple as earwax that is causing your hearing problems."

We're happy to help you...

If you want to know more about how better hearing can be achieved - your local Hearing Aid Audiological experts will give you the best advice FREE. There is never any obligation and all the valuable information is available to you.

FREE AUDIOMETRIC TEST

Following a discussion on the history of your hearing a brief ear examination, our Hearing Aid Audiologist will carry out a free comprehensive hearing test. You are asked to respond to a variety of frequencies which allow the Hearing Aid Audiologist to plot your results on a graph. With the results explained, the test is over ... it's as simple as that!

We often find it is a great help when testing your hearing to have a familiar voice with you. Part of our full hearing assessment is to present speech in what is called a Speech Clarity Test. A family member or close friend is ideal and they are free to help you with the hearing test as well as ask questions which you may not have thought of yourself.

Your Questions Answered...

Anything you are unsure of, simply ask our fully qualified Hearing Aid Audiologists

- Q. How will wearing a hearing aid affect my hearing in the future?
- A. Tests have actually shown that those people who wear their hearing aid regularly, strain less to hear and reduce the rate of further deterioration compared to people who need a hearing aid and do not wear it!
- Q. My wife says the TV is too loud for her. I feel my hearing is OK so would a test be a waste of time?
- A. No! It is never a waste of time. Our dispenser will always give you the best advice and will be happy to confirm if you have no hearing loss! Your test is completely without obligation and there is no pressure to have a hearing aid, just honest and sound advice.
- Q. My friend has a NHS hearing aid which looks big and uncomfortable. If I needed a hearing aid, would it be the same size?
- A. We can offer a whole range of small and discreet in-the-ear solutions and you will be advised on the best hearing solution for your hearing loss. As we are independent of any hearing aid manufacturer we can offer a wide selection of hearing aids and styles from small virtually invisible aids to power aids for more of a severe hearing loss.
- Q. Do I have to pay for tests and service in the future?
- A. No, our aftercare is free for life and there will never be a charge for re-testing, servicing or even home visits.

Protest against trust's hospital proposals Fear of babies dying raised over cutback

CAMPAIGNERS claim there will be baby deaths if maternity services are downgraded at Banbury's Horton Hospital.

Oxford University Hospitals Trust met yesterday as the Oxfordshire Guardian went to press to decide whether to suspend consultant-led maternity services at the hospital.

The trust says it has had problems recruiting doctors to run the service in Banbury.

In papers released before the meeting, the board is recommended to suspend consultant-led obstetrics and review the recruitment situation at the end of October, with a view to reinstating the service in January or March 2017.

It comes after a question-and-answer session last Thursday with Bruno Holthof, OUH chief executive, and other members of the trust.

In an "extremely heated" meeting at St Mary's Church, Banbury, residents, local politicians and medical staff fired questions at Mr Holthof.

Chairman of the Keep the Horton General campaign Keith Strangwood delivered a 15,000-signature petition to the board showing the strength of feeling over the proposal.

Sean Woodcock, Banbury Labour group leader, said: "Unfortunately there were a

A BICESTER woman who fled the country 'to avoid justice' has been convicted of killing her 20-month-old daughter three years ago.

First body of Didcot's missing three found

THE body of one of three workers missing after a building collapsed at Didcot 'A' Power Station has been discovered, police confirmed last night.

The men working to decommission the site died when almost half the boilerhouse crashed down on February 23.

Since then, the bodies of Ken Cresswell, 57, and John Shaw, 61, both of Rotherham, and Christopher Huxtable, 34, of Swansea, have remained under a pile of rubble.

The body of Mick Collings, 53, from Yorkshire, a fourth fatality, was found the same day.

The families of the missing three have been informed and are being supported by specially trained officers. Contractors paused the removal of debris yesterday so specialists from Thames Valley Police, Oxfordshire Fire and Rescue and South Central Ambulance Service's Hazardous Area Recovery Team could enter the site.

They were due to recover the body before the victim was identified.

Didcot MP Ed Vaizey tweeted: "Very sad news. But after such a long wait we are closer to bringing closure to the families."

But the six-month search for the three men has been described as a 'national scandal', partly because of the length of time it has taken.

Rotherham MP Sarah Champion, who represents two of the grieving families, tweeted yesterday: "One of the missing #Didcot men has been found but not yet identified. Pls send prayers to the Shaw, Cresswell & Huxtable families xxx."

A police spokesman said: "Our thoughts remain with the families of the missing men and we would ask that their privacy is respected during this incredibly difficult time."

A guard of honour was due to be mounted last night if the body was recovered.

Mum admits murdering 20-month-old daughter

A BICESTER woman who fled to Kenya in a bid to avoid justice has been convicted of the murder of her 20-month-old child.

Angela Whitworth, 44, formerly of Herald Way, pleaded guilty to one count of murder at a hearing at the Old Bailey in London on Friday.

Her daughter Sarah Dahane was found dead at Whitworth's house on May 16, 2013. Officers attended the property after a report was received concerned about Sarah's welfare from a member of her family.

Sarah was in the care of Whitworth at the time of her death.

Whitworth fled from the UK by flying from Heathrow to Kenya the day before Sarah was found.

Following an international appeal for information about Whitworth's whereabouts, officers travelled to Uganda where they detained her on March 9.

Whitworth was deported from Uganda and appeared at Oxford Magistrates' Court charged with the offence on March 24.

Senior investigating officer Detective Superintendent Ian Hunter said: "Whitworth fled to Kenya immediately after the murder in a bid to evade justice."

"From the time that Sarah's body was discovered on May 16, 2013, we have continued to work tirelessly to ensure the person responsible for her death was able to face justice in the UK courts.

"This has been a protracted, complex and challenging investigation from the outset."

He added: "I am pleased for Sarah's father Nabil, and those who knew and loved Sarah, that Whitworth has finally, after more than three years, taken responsibility for her actions."

The death of Sarah in her mother's care was "neither preventable nor predictable", a report concluded in 2014.

In February, Sarah's father Nabil Dahane spoke of his heartache, saying: "Sarah was so loved and loving. She loved everyone and everyone loved her back. She means the world to me. I'm still struggling to come to terms with it all. Perhaps seeing justice done for my daughter might help my pain."

Thames Valley Police worked closely with the National Crime Agency and Kenyan Police Service and offered £10,000 to anyone who provided information leading to an arrest or conviction in the case.

A post-mortem was unable to give a cause of Sarah's death, but noted there were no signs of sudden infant death, which is also known as 'cot death'.

News Bites

CCTV appeal

OXFORD: A CCTV image, above, has been released by police after a man was caught filming a woman in a shop changing room.

The woman in her 20s was in the changing room in the River Island store in Cornmarket Street when she noticed the man filming her between 1.30pm and 1.45pm on August 13.

Rape charge

OXFORD: A 17-year-old boy has appeared in court charged with attempted rape after a woman was assaulted near Hinksey Park in Oxford.

The teenager from Oxford was arrested on Saturday in connection to the incident in Lake Street at around 8am on Thursday.

He appeared at Oxford Magistrates' Court on Monday and Reading Magistrates' Court yesterday.

The charge is in connection to an assault on a woman in her twenties.

Machine blaze

OXFORD: Three fire engines were sent to deal with a washing machine fire at an Oxford home over the weekend.

At 3.45pm on Saturday, a fire crew from Slade Park and two from Rewley Road were called to the blaze at the house in Falcon Close.

They were faced with a large volume of smoke coming from three windows on the first floor of the terraced house. The fire was extinguished using water jets and no-one was injured.

number of basic questions that have still not been properly answered. We now await what the trust propose so we can respond appropriately."

A campaign spokesman said: "They haven't done enough to recruit new staff, all this twaddle that we can't help a national shortage is just a red herring."

She said the group had written to all the members of the board to spell out the dangers to mothers and babies.

The spokesman said: "The bottom line is there will be a death if this goes through to fruition. Babies are going to die in the back of ambulances and people need to be aware where the buck stops."

In the latest twist, GP Dr

Emma Haskew has written to Dame Fiona Caldicott, the trust chairman, raising safety concerns for patients.

Dr Haskew wrote on behalf of 13 GP surgeries.

The letter, posted on the KTHG Facebook page, said: "We are opposed to the proposals on the grounds of safety, sustainability and the reduction in access to basic health care and choice for our patients, which will affect especially the most vulnerable."

"We maintain that a midwife-led unit with a delivery rate of 450+ per annum, which is 25 miles away from the nearest obstetrician and paediatrician, is not safe. Through no fault of the midwives working in such a unit, GPs would have to consider the wisdom of recommending mothers to this service. Numbers would drop further and the service soon become non-viable."

Paul Brennan, director of clinical services of Oxford University Hospitals, said the trust had problems recruiting middle-grade obstetric doctors at the Horton and there were also vacancies at the John Radcliffe Hospital in Oxford.

He said: "The problem is compounded at the Horton due to the withdrawal in 2013 of recognised obstetric training programme status because of the low number of births there annually. Despite advertising posts at the Horton on a number of occasions, the trust has been unable to fill them."

PLANS to build giant warehouses at an entrance to Bicester have been recommended for refusal by council officers.

Warren Reid wants planning permission for a 700,000 sq ft business park with the warehouses, offices, a lorry park and a new access road off the A41 London Road.

Currently the site is agricultural land and there are also plans for a new housing estate.

Mr Reid's application says the development would create 930 jobs.

But Cherwell District Council's planning officers have recommended the application is rejected. A report for councillors said 24 letters of objection had been received plus a 200-signature petition.

People have raised a string of concerns including increased traffic, pollution and noise and that it would be damaging to wildlife and the environment.

The report said residents had also questioned the number of jobs that would be created – suggesting it had been over-estimated by 75 per cent.

Others said it was the wrong

By Samantha McGregor

location for this type of development, which would be better suited just off the motorway or at nearby Graven Hill, a Ministry of Defence storage and distribution centre.

Langford Village Community Association, which represents 4,500 residents who live next to the proposed site, opposes the plans, as do Bicester Town Council and parish councils in Ambrosden and Blackthorn.

"Significant objections" have been received from the occupiers of Wretchwick Farm Cottages, who live next to the site.

The residents of the two properties say the proposal would be detrimental to the area, and they have raised concerns over the "visual and noise impact", as well as air pollution, light nuisance and the impact on wildlife.

Oxfordshire County Council had raised "fundamental concerns" over the proposed developer contribution to transport.

It said: "The strategic transport contribution being offered is insufficient to mitigate the impact of the development."

"The total figure of £119,118 offered by the applicant in the Unilateral Undertaking falls considerably short of the transport contributions requested by OCC."

Councillors are due to decide the planning application today.

Robber jailed

A BANBURY man who broke into a house and held a knife to his victim's throat until he agreed to give him money has been jailed for 30 months.

Ryan Kane, 31, below, of Juniper Court, pleaded guilty to one count of affray and one count of robbery at Oxford Crown Court last week.

The charges related to two separate incidents.

In February this year, Kane broke into a property in Prescott Avenue, while the occupant, a 27-year-old man, was asleep.

Kane demanded money from the victim and ransacked the property looking for cash.

When Kane was challenged by the victim, he forced him on to a bed and held a knife to the victim's throat until he agreed to withdraw money from a cash machine and was able to escape to safety.

Last October, at about 1am, Kane, who was with three other men, approached a 48-year-old man in Edmunds Road and demanded money, threatening to set his friends on him if he did not.

The victim handed over some money and Kane left.

Oxford's march for Europe

CAMPAIGNERS in Oxford who oppose Britain's vote to leave the European Union in June are to march ahead of Parliament's discussions about Brexit.

At 11am on Saturday, hundreds of people are expected to march from Bonn Square to Broad Street to let Oxfordshire's MPs know how Oxford feels.

The Oxford march, organised by Stand Together: Oxford (formally known as Oxford Stays), is to take place at the same time as events in London, Bristol, Cambridge, Cardiff, Edinburgh and other cities across the country.

On Monday, Parliament is due to reconvene and debate Britain's Brexit deal and the potential of a second referendum.

By George Welch

The march hopes to inform Oxfordshire's six MPs – Andrew Smith, Nicola Blackwood, Ed Vaizey, David Cameron, Victoria Prentis and John Howell – what the people of Oxford want them to say in Parliament on their behalf.

Oxford voted over 70 per cent to remain and Oxfordshire was the only English county to vote in favour of Remain.

A statement from Stand Together: Oxford on their Facebook page said: "Our residents are worried about the impact of Brexit on the local economy, community wellbeing and our children's future."

"The universities, science and technology companies, BMW Mini plant, English language schools, the hospitals...the list goes on of local employers that rely on and benefit from European unity.

"Not to mention our European family, friends, colleagues who now feel different in our city - let's stand together in a show of unity."

There will be cross-party representation at the march, including the Green Party, Labour, conservatives and the Liberal Democrats.

The group, led by Marston mum Tessa Clayton, also initiated pro-EU marches on June 28 and July 23, a month on from the vote.

Dr Hazel Dawe, chair of Oxfordshire Green Party's European Campaign Committee, said: "Our MPs need to be confident that good, lasting agreements to secure the interests of the UK are within our grasp before committing to a two-year timetable to withdraw from the EU."

The march comes as the group which campaigned for the UK to stay in Europe has relaunched as a lobby group.

With 'Britain Stronger in Europe' being reborn this week as 'Open Britain', the new pro-EU lobby group has inherited about 500,000 supporters from the Remain campaign.

Second member of city drug gang is sentenced

A SECOND member of an Oxford drugs gang arrested as part of a major police operation last year has been jailed for more than four years.

James Screeton, 28, of Willes Close, Faringdon, was sentenced to 48 months and four weeks for two counts of conspiracy to deal methylmethcathinone and ketamine, after pleading guilty at Oxford Crown Court on Tuesday.

He was arrested as part of a gang of men, including three from Oxfordshire, suspected of dealing drugs around Oxford.

Two weeks earlier, fellow gang member Vishal Nazar, 37, of Danvers Road, Oxford, was sentenced to five years in jail for the same offences.

Screeton was scheduled to be sentenced on the same day, but had his case adjourned after a television link from HMP Bullingdon failed to work.

Their accomplice Ciaran Macdonough, 38, of Margaret Road, Twyford, was given a 16-month suspended sentence for transporting drugs.

In court, Screeton was proven to have had dealings with the courier, who was stopped by police with 3kg of a drug known as 'meow meow'.

It led to the arrest of the three gang members, following dawn raids on 11 homes in the Thames Valley area involving more than 100 officers and the seizure of over 27kg of the drug – the largest amount of the drug recovered at the time.

The alleged gang leader, Sohail Dawood, 33, formerly of Chipping Norton, is believed to have fled to Pakistan or Dubai and is still on the run.

Thames Valley Police is working with the Crown Prosecution Service and the National Crime Agency to find Dawood.

He is described as being Asian, of large build and about 5'11" in height.

Officers are urging anyone with information to call 101.

Toddler dies after latest A34 collision

By Dominic Thomas

A THREE-YEAR-OLD girl has died after a pile-up on the A34 near Oxford.

The toddler died on Saturday at the John Radcliffe Hospital in Headington two days after the eight-vehicle collision by the Hinksey Hill junction of the A34.

A 58-year-old man was arrested on suspicion of dangerous driving on Thursday night and has been bailed until October 2.

A 31-year-old woman also taken to John Radcliffe after the crash is still in hospital being treated for serious injuries.

Seven cars and one lorry collided at about 7.30pm last Thursday shutting the northbound carriageway during the evening for emergency services.

Investigating officer Sergeant Beth Walton, of Thames Valley Police's roads policing serious collision investigation unit, said: "This was a very serious incident in which a young child has tragically died, and so we are continuing to appeal for anyone who may have witnessed the incident to come forward and get in touch."

The crash was two weeks and one day after three children and a mum died in an eight-vehicle pile-up on the A34 about 15 miles south, near East Ilsley.

Tracy Houghton, 45, her two sons Ethan, 13, and Josh, 11, and her partner's 11-year-old daughter Amy Goldsmith were all killed in the collision between four cars and four lorries on August 10.

A 30-year-old man from Andover was arrested on suspicion of causing death by dangerous driving and has been bailed until October 5.

An A34 action group launched four days after the East Ilsley crash held its first meeting in West Ilsley village hall on August 17, a week before the next fatal collision.

Founder of the A34 Action Group, Alisdair Cunningham, said: "It is difficult to establish in cases like this as to how much driver behavior is a factor.

"But with the volume of traffic that we have on the A34 you inevitably end up with the potential for significant accidents like this one.

"Following the spate of recent accidents, it feels to local people like the road is becoming unsafe, whatever is causing this, something is changing and we want to find out what it is that is causing these serious accidents."

The group is calling for a full safety review of the road to investigate the rise in serious collisions.

MPs including Oxford West and Abingdon MP Nicola Blackwood and Wantage MP Ed Vaizey also backed a call for the Highways Agency to launch an investigation following the East Ilsley crash.

• The fatal crash was two weeks after another collision killed four people

Hacking warning

OXFORD: An Oxford scientist has warned humans could be at risk from 'brain jacking' in the future, where computer hackers can control people's thoughts and feelings by remote control.

Electronic brain implants are used to treat diseases like Parkinson's.

Laurie Pycroft, who is studying functional neurosurgery at Oxford University, warned these have the potential to be hacked wirelessly.

Wheelchair dance

Masterchef star challenges pubs to a charity mission

MASTERCHEF presenter Gregg Wallace is urging pubs across the county to sign up to a new kind of charity fundraiser after figures revealed more than 500 men in Oxfordshire are living with prostate cancer.

The statistics published by Public Health England also show 111 men in Oxfordshire died from the disease last year. According to other research, more than 3,000 men are living with or after prostate cancer in Oxfordshire.

The charity has teamed up with Mr Wallace to call on pubs to host pop-up pub fundraisers this month as part of a national campaign.

The top five fundraising pubs in the UK will be shortlisted to become Prostate Cancer UK's favourite local, based on the amount raised, most innovative idea, customer involvement and community links.

Mr Wallace said: "I've nominated my favourite local to host a fundraising event and even offered to bring the sausage rolls!"

According to the charity, one man an hour dies from prostate cancer in the UK and based on current trends, if nothing is done the number will rise to over 14,500 men a year by 2026.

By taking part, pubs can get fundraiser kits.

Cloudy2Clear Announce Trusted Trader Partnership

Which? Trusted trader

Consumer champions Which? have now joined the thousands of customers who recognise that Cloudy2Clear Windows really are a business that you can TRUST. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has received the coveted 'Which Trusted Trader' status after going through a rigorous accreditation process entirely focussed on customer service.

Group Managing Director Marcus McGee believes that Which? have endorsed Cloudy2Clear's long standing company policy of delivering the highest standards possible at all times. 'Our service is simple. If your double glazing has misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 25 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Whilst a number of tradespeople perhaps don't focus on customer care as much as they should do, we make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle.

Locally Cloudy2Clear service the Oxfordshire area from their local depots and manager James Miller agrees that this approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated as both my customers and, obviously a body as nationally important as Which? now recognise.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Man died after his car caught fire in accident, inquest told

A MAN who died when his car caught fire in a Cowley accident died from soot inhalation, the opening of an Oxford inquest heard.

Christi-Marian Bichir, 34, died on Monday, July 25, when his blue Volvo S60 burst into flames after crashing into a road sign in a hedge in Garsington Road near Oxford Business Park South.

Fire crews were called to the scene in the early hours to extinguish the blaze, before police and ambulance crews pronounced Mr Bichir dead at the scene.

His car was said to have left the road, gone over the roundabout and collided with the sign at about 2.40am. Roads around the scene of the crash were closed until about 7am.

Mr Bichir was identified by the coroner as a Romanian man who had worked at a car wash in Cowley and was living in Ridgefield Road at the time of his death.

He had only moved to the UK from Romania four months before his death.

At the opening of his inquest on Thursday at Oxford Coroner's Court in New Road, coroner Darren Salter gave a preliminary cause of Mr Bichir's death as soot inhalation.

'Media attention' forces under-fire chief to quit

THE chief executive of the heavily criticised Southern Health NHS Foundation Trust has quit over "media attention", it was announced this week.

There have been calls for Katrina Percy to resign after the trust had been repeatedly blamed for failing to protect vulnerable patients and to fully investigate unexplained deaths.

A report last year found the trust had failed to properly investigate the deaths of more than 1,000 patients in its care.

By George Welch

And, in June, the trust accepted responsibility for the death of Connor Sparrowhawk, who drowned in a bath at Slade House in Oxford.

An NHS England investigation found only 272 of the 722 deaths in the trust over the previous four years were dealt with properly – the Oxford case of 18-year-old Mr Sparrowhawk was not one of them. It admitted it "caused" the death of the young man, who suffered an epileptic seizure before he died in July 2013, and offered his family £80,000 compensation.

Families of the patients who had died at the hands of the trust had called for Ms Percy to be sacked, but following a review of the failings in July the trust allowed her to stay.

Ms Percy issued an apology, but criticised the NHS-commissioned report and refused to resign. But, on Tuesday, she said: "I have been humbled by the overwhelming support from staff and other colleagues.

"Since then I have reflected on the effect the ongoing personal media attention has had on staff and patients and have come to the conclusion that this has made my role untenable.

"I have therefore come to the difficult decision to step down from my role as chief executive after nine years."

Ms Percy will stay with the trust in a new role to help GP leaders provide strategic advice on improving health services.

She added: "I know, and understand, that many will say I should have stepped down sooner given the very public concerns which have been raised in the past months.

"I stayed on as I firmly believed it was my responsibility to oversee the necessary improvements."

Julie Dawes, who joined the trust in May as director of nursing and quality, will step up as an interim chief executive.

Ram raid attempt

W OXON: A second West Oxfordshire village Co-op has been targeted by ram-raiders in a failed burglary.

At least two offenders in a stolen Land Rover Defender tried to break into a cash machine at the store in Main Road, Long Hanborough, at about 3am last Thursday.

They stole two drinks from the shop after failing to ramsack the machine with tools.

The Land Rover was stolen from Isis Close, Long Hanborough that night. The offenders torched the car and fled in two other vehicles.

The incident was five days after masked men tried to tear a cash machine away from a Co-op store in Milton-under-Wychwood. Police are not linking the two incidents.

Housing scheme

W OXON: A new online system is being introduced so anyone on West Oxfordshire's housing register can apply for empty Housing Association properties themselves.

The scheme, Homeseeker Plus, will list vacant houses across the district for rent online. Prospective and existing tenants will be banded according to their needs and can then 'bid' for them.

It replaced the points-based Housing Waiting List this month.

Betjeman bust unveiled

A SCULPTURE commemorating Wantage's famous former resident John Betjeman has been unveiled in the town centre by his granddaughter.

The bust of the poet laureate, writer and broadcaster was unveiled outside Vale and Downland museum on Sunday in front of a crowd of more than 100 people.

Betjeman's granddaughter Endellion Lycett Green, an artist, did the honours uncovering the artwork for residents to see for the first time.

The piece was created by Martin Jennings, who also sculpted the renowned statue of Betjeman standing prominently in St Pancras Station, London.

Bevis Hillier, the official biographer of Betjeman and President of the national Betjeman Society visited Wantage for the official unveiling.

By George Welch

He said: "The Pygmalion legend is of a statue of coming to life. I now have the opposite experience, no less fascinating, of knowing a real person, John Betjeman, and seeing him turned into an utterly lifelike statue."

He compared the artwork to the statue standing at St Pancras: "The bust at Wantage is a wonderful spin off by the same great sculptor."

Betjeman lived in Wantage between 1951 and 1972.

The bust has been four years in the planning after the Betjeman Society and Wantage Town Council agreed the town's illustrious former resident should be celebrated.

The bust sits in the forecourt of Wantage's museum looking towards to Wantage Parish Church because in 1956 Betjeman played a key role raising money to restore the church roof.

He later penned a parody of an Anglican hymn 'the churches one foundation', named 'The Churches Restoration' in which the final line read: "And look up and he has restored the roof."

Wantage Betjeman Society

member Pat Mattimore said:

"What we like of John Betjeman is that he was of our time, whereas a lot of other previous poet laureates, of course we only have their written work."

"We haven't got any films, we haven't got any of them actually reading their work, and when you hear John Betjeman reading his work you can see exactly what he means."

Betjeman was poet laureate from 1972 until his death in 1984.

The Betjeman Society was founded two years later, and the Wantage branch was established 1994, a decade after his death.

An exhibition about Betjeman launched at the Vale and Downland Museum to coincide with the unveiling to September 10.

Brewery launches make-your-own beer

AN OXFORDSHIRE brewery's new venture gives punters a chance to make their own beer and learn about the process.

The make-your-own beer project by White Horse Brewery near Faringdon means people can spend the day learning about the craft of brewing.

These 'Mashtronauts' can then put their new knowledge into practice and pick the kind of beer they want to create to suit their taste buds.

Former chairman of the All Party Parliamentary Beer Group, Andrew Griffiths MP, launched the new enterprise at the brewery in Stanford in the Vale on Wednesday last week.

He said: "This project allows those of us who love beer and pubs to fully understand how life is breathed into new beers. It's a great experience."

• Andrew Griffiths MP brewing his own beer

White Horse Brewery also operates the Royal Blenheim pub in Oxford.

The 'Mashtronauts' will then have their name inscribed on a brand new honours board in the pub.

White Horse Brewery's managing director Andy Wilson, said: "We're proud of our new venture and excited to see what our Mashtronauts create with us."

The project, called Luna Brews, is a joint new scheme between White Horse Brewery and the Titanic Brewery in Stoke.

GCSE results delight

DESPITE a dip in national GCSE results to the lowest level since 2008, teenagers at Oxfordshire schools celebrated exam success last week.

Nationally, A* to C grades fell from 69 per cent to 66.9 per cent, and the number of the highest A* grades dropped from 6.6 per cent to 6.5 per cent.

But it was a record-breaking year of results for Didcot Girls' School (DGS), where the number of pupils achieving A* to A grades reached an all-time high of 28 per cent. Almost a quarter, 24 per cent, achieved five or more A* to A grades.

By George Welch

DGS pupil Antonia Marsh achieved her grades (1A*, 5As and 1B) despite only taking a year to do them.

The 16-year-old, who said she 'could not believe' her results, will now be taking her A-levels in the town's sixth form.

Viktoriya Ball, who spoke very little English when she arrived from Eastern Europe a few years ago, led the way with nine A* and four Bs.

Other high achievers included Rose Kent (9A* and 2As), Yana Yarmolich (9A* and 3As) and Michaela Murphy (9A* and 3As).

Michaela intends to stay in Didcot for her sixth-form studies in maths, physics, chemistry and RE. She and her friends Chloe Tucker (7A* and 5A) and Ruth Hall (3A*, 7As and 1B) said they were 'delighted' with their results.

It was another successful day at Abingdon's John Mason School, where pass rates rose to 98.3 per cent, and pupil Tom Hehir celebrated 11A* and 1A.

Didcot's boys school, St Birinus School, achieved the school's best set of results to date, with 67 per cent of pupils achieving five A* to C grades including English and maths.

Meanwhile, three pupils at King Alfred's Academy, Wantage, combined sporting achievement with academic success.

National youth swimmer Emily Nisbet achieved 10 A*/A grades alongside her busy training schedule, while county cricketer Luke Cheshire gained all A* to B grades, despite completing his GCSE programme in one year alongside Glamorgan and Oxfordshire cricket training.

Nathan Baker has also joined the Oxford United Football Club apprenticeship scheme, having secured A* to C grades.

John Gargan, vice principal of the Oxford Academy, where 70 per cent of pupils achieved A* - C in English, and 63 per cent in maths, said: "We've got really pleasing results."

He added: "94 per cent of kids did better than expected despite having lower Key Stage 2 results than last year's."

Although many Oxfordshire schools have performed well, there has been a national decline in the pass rate now students who fail English and maths have to re-sit the exams.

This meant there was an increase in entries of approximately 25 per cent over the last year. But it is still unknown how Oxfordshire's results fare as a change in the submission processes has caused a delay.

An Oxfordshire County Council statement said: "It is not possible at this stage to provide a meaningful overview of how the county has fared as a whole, or to compare performance with previous years."

• Pupils checking their results and celebrating at Didcot Girls' School

• (Above) Didcot Girls' School saw a record-breaking year while (left) Abingdon pupil Tom Hehir, of John Mason School, achieved 11A* and 1A

Widow's charity to help victims of brain tumour

FRIENDS and family of a Bicester DJ are raising money in his memory to help others affected by a brain tumour.

Michael Barry, 35, was diagnosed with a brain tumour after suffering a seizure. He underwent several treatments, but in January was told he had weeks to live and died at home in Newcastle-under-Lyme, Staffordshire.

Michael, who was born and grew up in Bicester, was a DJ and promoter and ran a popular club night Abort, Retry, Fail? in Oxford from 2006 to 2008. The city was where he met wife Lucy, now 29, an undergraduate at Oxford University.

Lucy said: "The bravery and courage Michael showed throughout his illness was truly inspirational, and I am so proud of my incredible husband. Michael faced each new treatment with a spring in his step, refusing to let his illness define him or to believe any reality other than that he would get better and live out our dreams together.

By Samantha McGregor

"To watch Michael face each day with such positivity and strength of character, and then be told there was nothing more we could do to save him, was simply devastating."

Lucy, who has set up The Michael Barry Fund to help The Brain Tumour Charity, said: "Since losing Michael, I began to read more about brain tumours and survival statistics and I was horrified to see how underfunded research into brain tumours is, and how little progress has been made in improving prognosis."

So far, the group has raised more than £5,000. A daytime disco, We Are Your Friends #1, featuring a host of DJ sets is being held at The Bullingdon, Cowley Road, Oxford, on September 4 from 2-7pm.

A second event, The Emma Bridgewater Open Gardens Day, in Bampton, will take place on September 18 from 2.30-5.30pm.

Geraldine Pipping, of The Brain Tumour Charity, said: "We receive no Government funding and rely 100 per cent on voluntary donations, so it's only through the efforts of Lucy and others like her that we can work towards our twin goals of doubling survival and halving the harm caused by brain tumours."

Gearing up for food fun

ORGANISERS are gearing up for this year's Thame Food Festival later this month.

Last year's winner of the TV show The Great British Bake Off winner Nadiya Hussain, below, will be headlining the show, which takes place on September 24.

She will demonstrate her culinary skills on the Baking Stage and sign copies of her new book.

Festival patron Lotte Duncan will be interviewing Nadiya and other Bake-Off colleagues live on stage and is urging people to get in touch with their baking questions.

She said: "Do you have any questions for our baking stars?"

"Does your tart have the proverbial soggy bottom?"

"Does your cake sag in the middle?"

"And do your meringues have a mind of their own?"

"Well, send in your question now and you could be one of the lucky ones to have it answered."

Also signed up for the food festival is Howard Middleton, who returns for a second year and will demonstrate gluten-free baking.

Three former Bake Off contestants Miranda Gore Browne, who now runs a cookery school, Luis Troyano and Chetna Makan will also take to the stage to show off their cooking skills.

Thame Food Festival was launched in 2008 to promote and celebrate all things food in and around the town.

For more information, view thamefoodfestival.co.uk or to email questions to Lotte at: bake@thamefoodfestival.co.uk

Maintenance work

N OXON: Car parks in Bicester, Banbury and Kidlington will undergo maintenance work over the next two months.

From this week, they will be resurfaced and relined.

Cherwell District Council, which owns 23 car parks in the district, said it would advertise any closures in advance.

Applications open

THAME: Applications have opened for anyone interested in running a stall at the town's Christmas lights switch-on event.

Taking place on Friday, December 2, traders, charities and groups can view the council's website to find out more information, email info@thametowncouncil.gov.uk or drop into the information centre at the Town Hall.

Walking football

BICESTER: Over-50s who still fancy a game of soccer are being urged to join a new version of the game - walking football.

Organised by Cherwell District Council and Bicester Walking Football Club, sessions will take place every Thursday, at the all-weather AstroTurf surface at Bicester Leisure Centre, from 3.30 to 4.30pm.

Sessions cost £2.50 and players can just turn up. For more information, email bicesterwalkingfootballclub@gmail.com or call the centre on 01869 253914.

Funeral to be held for abandoned baby girl

AN unknown baby girl abandoned in a ditch next to an Oxford cycle path is going to be given a proper funeral, police have announced, after an inquest ruled she was stillborn.

The baby will be laid to rest within the next few weeks, while officers continue to appeal for the mum to come forward.

She was found by a member of the public on a path between University Parks and Edgeway Road, off Marston Road, on February 29.

The identity of the baby and its mother remains unknown, despite exhaustive police searches and appeals.

Police say they will be arranging the baby's funeral in the coming weeks.

An inquest last Thursday into the death of the baby, which was said to be found in a black bag with its umbilical chord still attached, concluded yesterday that the cause of death was unascertained.

Oxfordshire coroner Darren Salter said the purpose of the inquest was to establish whether the baby had lived independently from its mother.

Post-mortems from two separate pathologists, one specialising in paediatric death confirmed the evidence indicated that it was a stillbirth.

A report from pathologist Dr Nicholas Hunt, read out at the inquest, said: "The deceased was a normal developing baby girl, weighing eight pounds, normal for a 40-week term baby.

"There was no definitive evidence of any aeration of the lungs or any milk curds found in the stomach to suggest a post-birth feed.

"Therefore, there is no positive medical evidence to prove she had achieved a separate and independent existence and therefore was stillborn."

Detective Sergeant Kevin Parsons, who investigated the case, spoke at Oxford Coroner's Court, saying: "We have exhausted all lines of inquiry in relation to identifying the baby's mother."

He said that ancestral DNA testing carried out by the police had indicated that the baby was likely to have been of South

By Dominic Thomas

East Asian ethnicity, possibly Filipino or Indonesian, but clarified that the test's margin for error was about 10 per cent.

"We also conducted inquiries into those communities, and spoke to leaders of the communities, but these produced nothing," said Det Sgt Parsons.

He also said they had carried out extensive house-to-house inquiries, CCTV searches from all possible places in the surrounding area, and a media campaign, but still failed to discover anything which could identify the mother or baby.

Det Sgt Parsons confirmed that the funeral for the baby would take place imminently, but that a date had not yet been set.

Firefighters quash company blaze

EYNHAM: More than 50 firefighters battled a large fire at an industrial estate in Eynham last week.

Nine fire crews were called to Oxford Monitoring Services in Oakfield Industrial Estate at 5.24pm on Wednesday.

Oxfordshire Fire and Rescue Service said they faced extremely hot and arduous conditions as they extinguished the fire and worked to stop it from spreading to neighbouring businesses.

Specialist officers are working to discover the cause of the fire.

Birdsong 'most relaxing' noise

OXFORD: The tweeting of birds has been revealed as the most comforting sound to people in Oxford.

The research carried out by hearing loss company Amplifon revealed 59 per cent of people found it most comforting sound. Background TV came second with 50 per cent.

They also surveyed accents and revealed the southern Irish are thought to have the most attractive, and Essex the most annoying (41 per cent) – even more than nails on a chalkboard (28 per cent).

£2m boost for heart research in Oxford

OXFORD scientists specialising in heart disease research are to receive a welcomed financial boost of £2 million from the British Heart Foundation (BHF).

The money will help researchers at the John Radcliffe Hospital in Headington to develop new medicines for heart disease.

By George Welch

The scientists are at the forefront of international research identifying genes that contribute to the development of coronary heart disease (CHD), the major cause of heart attacks.

Newly appointed BHF Professor Keith Channon, from the University of Oxford, said:

"This new funding will give us the platform we need to make sense of the masses of data we have from genetic studies, and help us to identify biological processes that we don't already know about."

"With our approach we might well find things that are completely new and unanticipated, which could lead to new treatments that save and improve the lives of people affected by coronary heart disease."

And the findings could also inform other areas of heart and circulatory disease, including high blood pressure, stroke, and an abnormal heart rhythm disorder called atrial fibrillation.

Over 50 genes have been identified that contribute to risk of CHD – but the underlying mechanisms are still, in many cases, unknown.

Discovering how the genes increase risk is likely to lead to new treatments for CHD, which are still needed to reduce the number of people dying prematurely from a heart attack.

Uniquely in the UK, the John Radcliffe Hospital admits new patients with suspected heart attack or stroke to a purpose-designed clinical research centre, partly funded by the BHF.

The doctors take samples and advanced imaging measurements for research at the same time as the patient receives clinical care.

New methods of clinical care include advancements in how genes are analysed.

These newly understood mechanisms can then be studied directly in mice, where potential new drugs can be tested as the first step towards new treatments for patients.

Scientists are hoping this research could ultimately unveil a pipeline of new genes, molecules and pathways that underpin susceptibility to CHD.

A BHF half marathon and 10k run at Blenheim Palace in Woodstock will be raising money for the charity on October 2.

Last year runners helped raise more than £180,000. More than 3,000 runners have so far signed up for the seventh event.

Most hated word survey is halted after misuse

A GLOBAL online survey by Oxford Dictionaries to discover the world's most hated words has been suspended after 'severe misuse' by people posting politically-charged terms.

Oxford Dictionaries, part of Oxford University Press, launched the vote on Thursday last week to find English speakers' least favourite word broken down by country, but the survey was halted the next day after users submitted words including 'Islam' and 'Israel'.

By the time it was suspended 'moist', 'Brexit' and 'no' topped the table as the three most detested words in the UK.

A statement by Oxford Dictionaries said: "We regret to inform users that due to severe misuse we have had to remove this feature from our website."

More than 12,000 people worldwide had submitted their least favourite words, 4,000 of those from the UK.

Oxford Dictionaries had hoped tens of thousands of people would contribute, enabling it to put together a list of the least popular words by country, age, and gender, and revealing similarities and differences around the world.

They planned to publish the data online on an interactive world map.

Complaint against council is upheld by Ombudsman

A REVIEW will be held after a council failed to properly inspect building work which went on to cost a homeowner tens of thousands of pounds.

The Local Government Ombudsman upheld a complaint by Chris Harris after Cherwell District Council's building control department issued a completion certificate for defective work which failed to comply with building regulations.

The council said an internal and external review of its building control record keeping had been launched.

By Samantha McGregor

Two years ago, Mr Harris, 43, of Charlton-on-Otmoor, had a tiled roof put on his conservatory. As it needed to pass building regulations, he contacted the council, which sent out inspectors three times, signing off the work after the third visit.

However, within months the roof started leaking. The builder, who has not been named, denied liability and the matter went to Oxford County Court.

But the case failed because the builder had a completion certificate, which was issued after the council signed off the work.

Mr Harris said the matter has cost him almost £80,000.

He said: "It is not that the council's inspector failed to notice the defective work...he failed to inspect; he did not look at the roof at all, yet signed it off as being compliant."

In a statement Cherwell council said it "acknowledges" the Ombudsman's findings but still maintained it was an issue between Mr Harris and his builder and was not the council's liability.

It said: "The case law is clear that a council cannot be held liable for the cost of remedying a defect that resulted from that council not properly exercising its supervisory powers under the building regulations."

Show funds hall revamp

A SUMMER show has done more than entertain residents – it has helped pay for a revamp of a parish hall.

In July, Launton Village Players staged 'That's Entertainment', a variety show featuring sketches, singing and dancing.

Over two nights the show raised £1,515 which was donated to the Launton Parish Hall improvement project.

But the players didn't stop at raising cash – they all donated their time, brought in a paint brush and gave the hall a lick of paint.

The walls had become scuffed and marked and were in need of a makeover.

Paint was donated by businessman Andy Ng and Brewers' Decorators in Telford Road.

In a joint statement, the show's directors Nicky Roberts, Andy Roberts and Julia West said: "We were very pleased with the success of the show and the substantial amount raised for the cause."

"It made all the hard work, planning and preparation worthwhile."

They added: "We'd like to say thank you to all who came to see the show and dug deep into their pockets for such a significant and worthy cause for the village of Launton."

The players rehearse in the parish hall.

In the longer term, the Parish Hall Improvement Project will continue to fundraise to carry out significant work at the hall.

Council increase

NOXON: Landlords issued with notices to improve housing will face a 25 per cent increase in costs from October.

Cherwell District Council said it will increase the cost to issue unsatisfactory housing notices from £150 to £200 to cover the cost it incurs.

Cllr John Donaldson, Cherwell's lead member for housing, said: "This year we are increasing the minimum charge for notices to more accurately reflect the typical cost of inspecting a property, assessing what needs to be done, and then preparing and serving the notices."

Bins installed

THAME: Three new dual-use bins have just been installed at Cuttle Brook Nature Reserve.

The bins can be used for litter and bagged dog waste and will be emptied by Cuttle Brook Volunteers.

All three bins have been made from recycled plastics and have a closed top to prevent rubbish being blown out.

Voting canvass

NOXON: People are being urged to check they are registered to vote as the annual canvass gets under way.

Letters have been sent to 63,500 homes across the Cherwell district to request householders to register all eligible voters at their property.

AMBITION DETERMINATION EXCELLENCE

Caremark offers a specialised care service for people who need support with day-to-day life but want to stay in their own home. Caremark's live-in care service enables you to remain as independent as possible, whilst being fully supported by a full time live-in Care Worker.

Care at home

You will have choice and control over your life. You can live in familiar surroundings with family, friends, your own possessions, furniture and pets too!

We will agree a personal support plan with you, detailing what kind of care and support you need, including your preferences. You'll enjoy one-to-one support from a fully trained Care Worker. You'll be able to relax, knowing that there is someone there for you seven days a week, to help with your housework, personal care and shopping or simply to provide good company.

Your satisfaction and happiness are vital to us

We will match your Care Workers to your needs. We will regularly monitor and review your satisfaction to make sure you always receive the highest standard of care.

Please call us on 01993810918

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

The magic of Miller lives on

HE might have died almost 72 years ago but Glenn Miller's legacy lives on with the show 'The Glenn Miller Story' at Oxford's New Theatre until Saturday, September 3.

The run of shows at the George

By James Richings

Street venue started on Tuesday, August 30, which also marked the New Theatre's first show of its exciting line-up for the 2016/17 season.

With the show starring British music legend Tommy Steele, audience members at the New Theatre will be able to see how Miller made his name, whilst also learning about the tragic circumstances that ended his life so suddenly in December 1944.

"Glenn Miller is my idol and I was taken by my parents to see him when I was a little boy," Tommy said. "I was a kid during the Blitz so the bombs were dropping everywhere and in 1942 the Americans came into the war.

"I was only four and all of a sudden over American Forces Network came this music saying Glenn Miller's coming to England, my mum and dad were thrilled.

"My dad took me to the Albert Hall to see him.

"Today, all I can remember is this wonderful sound and then came the mystery of his death. It's a great story.

"Glenn Miller was a man searching for the perfect sound and I loved that whole tale of him being so meticulous about his music."

"When you add that to the tragedy, you have all the material for a musical theatre show.

It's an adventure in music you won't stop tapping to."

Born in 1904 in Iowa, Miller became a household name during the 1920s and 1930s when his popular big band tunes such as 'In the Mood', 'Moonlight Serenade' and 'A String of Pearls' were played on numerous radio stations in the US and the UK which led him to become the world's best-selling musician from 1939 to 1943.

His leadership, compositions and high work ethic made Miller one of the most successful musicians in swing and jazz.

However, his career and life came to a tragic end on December 15, 1944, when a 44-year-old Miller was travelling from England to France to entertain American troops during the Second World War.

His plane disappeared over the Channel, with the bandleader still being classed as missing in action to this very day.

But despite the tragic way that the musician's life was ended, Miller's music and legacy has lived on.

"It's a show about a man looking for a sound, which he then finds," Tommy said. "It's never that strenuous when you're in a great show and you can't wait to sing the songs, do the dances.

"I can't really explain it but you walk on stage, do two-and-a-half hours and you've got an audience listening, you can't be luckier than that, can you?

Tickets cost from £15 to £48.90.

Singer performs to entertain elderly

WILTSHIRE singer-songwriter is travelling around the South performing to elderly people in care homes.

His next stop is at the Close Care Home in Abingdon on Wednesday, September 7.

"One of the best aspects of working in care homes, and more especially in dementia units, is that I get a lot of joy in singing songs that obviously have meant something to the residents for a long time," the full-time musician told the Guardian.

Dave's repertoire includes swing, rock 'n' roll, 1990s pop and country and western to make sure that there is something for everyone.

Dave's performance at the home will start at 2.45pm and will last for an hour.

The Eulogy of Toby Peach

AT the age of 28 Toby Peach has already been recruited twice to the exclusive 'Cancer Club'.

The actor and writer's one-man-show 'The Eulogy of Toby Peach' will not only celebrate life but also mortality and the wonders of the human body when it arrives at Oxford's Burton Taylor Studios.

The comedic but emotional show will recount Toby's battle with blood cancer Hodgkin's Lymphoma.

He fought and beat the disease on two separate occasions aged 19 and 21.

Toby's Eulogy will take the audience on a tour of the Cancer Club, let them sample chemotherapy cocktails and marvel at Willy Wonka's life-saving stem cell machine.

As a teenager he visited his GP because his neck was starting to look noticeably large.

He said although his doctor didn't think it could be cancer, because only one per cent of people who have cancer are 15-24, he was sent for tests.

After being diagnosed, he said: "I didn't think it could be cancer."

"I didn't really know what cancer was."

He told the Guardian: "For me I found the mental battle the hardest."

"Seeing my body change drastically

By James Richings

and coping with the situation left me fractured.

"I didn't recognise the person in the mirror a lot of the time. Seeing the stress and strain on those around me is difficult to manage too."

He had been an enthusiastic young man ready to make his mark on the world. But when the illness struck, he didn't know which day could be his last.

Toby decided to write his own show to explain how the cancer changed his life, and hopes his story can help other cancer patients.

"When you experience cancer or any disease, at any age, it does change you."

"It scares you, especially when you're forced to notice your own mortality."

"It took me a long time to understand though, that I can't change these scars that I have and I have to accept and move forward with them."

He added: "One in two of us will experience cancer first-hand so I wanted to bring this universal issue to the stage."

Productions are on Thursday, September 8, and Friday, September 9, starting at 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £10.

• Cancer survivor Toby Peach will be performing his own eulogy

Roughcut Ruby

LIVE MUSIC: Witney-based covers band Roughcut Ruby will be performing at The Bay Tree in Wantage on Friday, September 2.

Richard Horrocks on bass, Paul Haines on drums, Jim Smith on guitar, and vocalist Helen Harrison will play hits from the likes of Maroon 5, The Wombats, and Stevie Wonder.

The free gig at the Newbury Street venue will start at 9pm.

Glee Club bill

COMEDY: The Glee Club's weekly entertainment bill continues on Saturday, September 3 with comedians Prince Abdi, George Zach, and Mike Wilmot among the line-up.

Tickets for the show in Oxford's Hythe Bridge Street cost £14.50. It is suitable for over 18s.

Eddie The Eagle

FILM: This year's blockbuster 'Eddie the Eagle', will be screened at Banbury's Mill Arts Centre on Tuesday, September 13.

Starring Taron Egerton, Hugh Jackman, Christopher Walken and Jim Broadbent, the biographical flick looks at the career of ski jumper Michael 'Eddie the Eagle' Edwards.

It starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost £6.

Davis Tate marks its quarter century

AFTER a modest start at Goring-on-Thames in January 1991, Davis Tate proudly celebrate 25 successful years of trading in 2016.

Joint managing director Matthew Davis and David Tate started the partnership together by recognising they individually brought very different skills sets that complement each other to form a business model that has proven to work well.

The company name says it all, a combination of both their surnames – with both still involved in the day-to-day running of the company. Estate Agency in 1991 was the same as it is today, a personal and intense process, involving the needs of numerous links of a chain, but the way it which it works has taken on some major changes since 1991, and it is the ability to adapt and react, but also predict these changes, that has allowed the company to go from strength to strength over the years.

Industry challenges have come along, and at times the business has had to refocus and adjust, ultimately for the long term benefit.

Mr Davis said: "I remember the early days, when we knew the detail of each sale and let. As we have grown, I have taken care of the 'back room' function, and David inspires our ever-growing customer facing staff base. We've also grown our services from not just selling houses; we also let and manage over 2,000 homes for a worldwide data base of landlords, based in over 65 countries, as well as many local investors, and we offer financial services and conveyancing."

Mr Tate agreed, saying: "Things are very different now with technology, and I find myself explaining to the younger starters how we worked when we started, with simple things like taking photographs and waiting for them to be developed before sticking them onto pieces of paper to make up our property particulars which were typed on a typewriter! Most things are more immediate these days with mobile phones, email, internet, and property websites, but we still find that our clients need and appreciate our expertise in All Property Matters.

"We have a particular skill in New Homes, Land and Development, and have sold many hundreds of new homes throughout the area, including over 20 sites in Henley alone since 1995."

From the first office, the two have steadily grown the company and now offer a networked local estate agent with 13 high street offices throughout Berkshire and Oxfordshire, with over 80 staff who continue their ethos of being a local, knowledgeable team.

Oxford needs to see more housing built

EVEN with Brexit and the fact immigration numbers may now reduce over the coming years, there remains a severe shortage of new housing being built in the Oxford area (and across the UK as a whole).

Even if there are short-term confidence trembles fueled by journalists, politicians and others hungry for bad news, the fast-growing population of Oxford creates high demand for property creating an imbalance of supply and demand.

New building in the Oxford City Council area has grown. In 2014/15, for every 1,000 existing households, an additional 0.72 homes were built, for 2015/16, that figure is 2.49 homes built per thousand existing households (an increase of 246%).

However, nationally, to meet the Government's stated 1,000,000 new homes target, Oxford needs to be at 7.12 new homes per thousand. This dismal picture is down to the fact that not enough is being done to fix the broken Oxford housing market. We are still only seeing 140 new homes being built when we need 400 a year to stand still!

In my opinion, Messrs Cameron and Osborne focused their attention too much on the demand side of the housing equation, using the Help to Buy scheme and low-deposit mortgages to convert the 'Generation Rent' into 'Generation Buy'.

It is now vital that the supply-side is addressed, and I would recommend the new Housing Minister, Gavin Barwell grabs this challenge with some urgency. This will require transformation of local planning policy, legislation, large-scale release of public land and much greater investment.

Demystifying landlord licensing issues

If you're a landlord in Oxford, you're no doubt aware of the debate around licensing. It's a topic that has met with much discussion and is one which is often misunderstood.

First things first, landlord licensing is not new, nor is it unique to Oxford City Council. It was introduced for Homes of Multiple Occupancy (HMOs) back in 2011, and there have been ongoing discussions around introducing it for all landlords, possibly as early as January 2017.

The fact is, it's likely to happen so whether you're an existing landlord or considering becoming one, now is the time to do your homework and understand its implications.

On face value, licensing is a good thing. No-one wants sub-quality rental property in the market.

Of course, not all landlords are rogues and if it is introduced across the entire lettings market, it could cause a headache for those who already act responsibly. The cost of the actual license aside, some landlords could find themselves being required to carry out obligatory renovation jobs. Frustratingly, the detail here simply isn't yet known.

What licensing does mean though, whether at an HMO level or in the regular private rented sector, is that those properties quick to gain their license, can market this status as a benefit.

Simply, good quality properties will let quickly, often with multiple applicants vying for the tenancy and sometimes even going for over the initial asking rent.

If you're concerned what this will mean to you, then visit your local Andrews' branch, or visit andrewsonline.co.uk

Former TV man to star in show

IT might be only September, but a slapstick pantomime interpretation of 'The Three Musketeers' is visiting the Kenton Theatre in Henley.

Written and directed by Ian McFarlane, the family-fun production starts its run at the New Street Theatre this evening and ends on Saturday, September 17.

The play stars former Blue Peter children's TV show presenter Peter Duncan, 62, who hopes there will be something for everyone during the 16-day run.

"The rehearsals have been joyous and a lot of fun so hopefully the shows will be exactly the same," he told the Guardian.

"Prior to doing the rehearsals, I have never even been to the Kenton Theatre before but it's a beautiful place in a beautiful part of the country, so when the first show date arrives, I'll be very excited."

Written and directed by Ian McFarlane, the play is based in 1942 with theatre director Aubrey Everett currently touring the English provinces with his own adaptation of The Three Musketeers.

By James Richings

However, the vast majority of his cast and crew are stuck on a train near Salisbury after a German air raid destroyed the bridge over the River Avon.

Will Aubrey manage to get his crew and cast in time for the show? Or is there a disaster waiting to happen?

"I can't tell you what role I play as that would be given too much away, so you have to come along to find out," Peter said.

"However, I can tell you that this is a comedy musical so expect a lot of laughs with some very catchy numbers.

"It is very much in the style of what I would describe it as variety, slapstick, storytelling musical that has been set in the 1940s."

Peter also revealed that his long friendship with McFarlane helped him land a role in the production.

Well known on screen as one of the faces of Blue Peter during the 1980s, he hopes his role will a positive reaction from the audience.

"Ian McFarlane wrote the play and we have worked with each other before in the past, and I was eager to work with him again," he said.

"He then came up with this idea about this character and the play was developed from that and here we are doing it.

"It's a very exciting for an actor to have something written especially for them and I was an actor before I was on Blue Peter and after that, I became diverse in so many different things.

"But, as a performer you've got to be like that, so that everything you do is interesting and creative."

NINEBARROW

Ninebarrow are a multi-award-winning folk duo, who are impressing audiences across the country with their innovative and captivating take on the folk tradition.

Described by Mike Harding as sounding 'damn fine' and by Seth Lakeman as 'a fantastic duo', Jon Whitley and Jay LaBouchardiere combine breath taking vocal harmonies and melodies, delivering original songs that are inspired and rooted in the landscape and history of the British Isles.

Most recently, Ninebarrow were announced winners of Fatea Magazine's 'Debut Album of the Year' 2014.

THE SOUND OF MUSIC

One of the greatest musicals of all time returns to the stage in a magnificent new production to enchant the young and the young at heart.

This wonderfully lavish new staging tells the true story of the world-famous von Trapp singing family, from their romantic beginnings and search for happiness, to their thrilling escape to freedom at the start of WWII.

Lucy O'Byrne, fresh from her success on BBC One's The Voice, plays the role of Maria. She became the competition's runner up in 2015, impressing the nation and chart topper will.i.am with her stunning vocal range. Award winning TV and stage leading-man Andrew Lancel plays the dashing Captain von Trapp. Lancel, who is best known to TV audiences for his portrayal of villainous businessman Frank Foster in Coronation Street and for the role of DI Neil Manson in The Bill, drew critical acclaim in the title role of the West End production Epstein - The Man Who Made the Beatles.

GLASGOW GIRLS

Glasgow Girls is based on the true story of seven feisty teenagers, whose lives changed forever when their school friend and her asylum-seeking family are forcibly taken from their home to be deported. Cora Bissett and David Greig's smash-hit life-affirming political drama tells the tale of young women galvanised to take a stand and fight for the life of their friend, her family, and, ultimately, for the rights of all children of asylum-seekers.

THE EULOGY OF TOBY PEACH

I was born on the 18th December 1988. I dressed up as a bandicoot once. I was diagnosed with cancer 3,322,000 minutes ago...

Toby has come to deliver his Eulogy. Join him as he enters the (not so) exclusive Cancer Club; sample chemotherapy cocktails, select the perfect funeral playlist and marvel at Willy Wonka's life-saving stem cell machine. From diagnosis to remission, relapse and treatment; experience a young man's journey with cancer in this honest, fascinating and inspiring exploration of modern science and the human body. A "heartfelt and buoyant" (???? Stage) discovery of self-mortality and celebration of life!

Sat, Sep 10, 11am and 4pm

PINOCCHIO

Join Geppetto - played by Steve Tiplady - in his carpenter's workshop for the tale of the puppet that wants to be a real boy, and the puppet-maker who wants to be a real father. Pinocchio is carved on stage, brushes become a fox and the shadow of two saws transforms into a giant shark. An element of improvisation makes each performance unique to its audience. Puppetry, shadows, illusion and original music combine to create a show with something for all ages; it's inventive, funny, and has a big heart.

EQUATIONS FOR A MOVING BODY

Equations for a Moving Body is a story about endurance - when our brains tell our bodies to stop - and the psychology of carrying on. It is a story about preparing mind and body and the people who share that journey with us. What carries us to the finish line? What's left at the end of 141 miles of swimming, cycling and running?

Inspired by her own experience in triathlons and iron man events, with help from scientists and psychologists, and a documentary filmmaker, Hannah Nicklin will share what it means to attempt a great feat of endurance, and ask why we do these (frankly ridiculous) kinds of things.

ENTERTAINMENT & LISTINGS

Thu, Sep 15, 7.30pm
New Theatre, Oxford

ONE NIGHT OF QUEEN

In 2000, Gary Mullen won ITV's "Stars In Their Eyes" Live Grand Final, with the largest number of votes ever received in the show's history. The record of 864,838 votes was more than twice that of the runner-up. Gary began touring on his own and in 2002 formed a band The Works, to pay tribute to rock legends Queen. Since May 2002, Gary Mullen and the Works have performed throughout the UK, USA, Europe, South Africa and New Zealand to sell-out audiences. The outfit have also twice rocked the prestigious BBC Proms in the Park, in front of a very enthusiastic crowd of 40,000. One Night of Queen is a spectacular live concert, recreating the look, sound, pomp and showmanship of arguably the greatest rock band of all time. This show will ROCK you!

A TALE OF TWO CITIES

In an age when governments across the world face increasing unrest, Dickens' classic tale seems more relevant than ever. With a bold new dramatic adaptation by Mike Poulton (Wolf Hall, RSC) and rousing music by Oscar-winning Rachel Portman, this production is alive with passion and rebellion. Considered by Dickens to be "the best story I have ever written".

this tale weaves an intense family drama with the terror and chaos of the French Revolution. An epic story of love, sacrifice and redemption amidst an ever-changing world.

ANDY ROBBINS AND

MICHAEL AXENDERIE

Signed to BFS records and a regular performer at Cornerstone, Andy has performed at the last two beer and music festivals and blows everyone away with the power and intensity of his performances. What we are really excited about is not just his great voice and passionate guitar-playing but the calibre of his song writing.

His latest work is really something to get excited about and we feel he is on the brink of becoming a huge name. He is already a regular on the Oxford music scene, having performed at the O2 Academy and Jericho Tavern but has also performed in almost every major city in the UK as well as playing several European dates.

After an unveiling at the London Motor Show, the GS is on the roads for a piece of the surge in the sporty market

MG's first SUV put to the test

Power and Efficiency:

The new MG GS is powered by a 166PS 1.5L TGi turbo charged engine that is able to perform very well and will sprint from 0-60 in under 10 seconds and return a decent 46.3mpg (combined).

The engine also feels willing in normal use – but I think it may struggle – especially when fully laden. This is not a put off – because I can think of a number of similar cars that have the same issues and with some of them costing a lot more than the GS.

But in its defence the GS does have a good torque figure of 250Nm at 1,600rpm-4,300rpm which makes overtaking easy.

Even overtaking in top gear on motorways becomes brisk without the need to drop down a gear.

bit more body roll than I would have expected but nothing that would worry me for a SUV. Also, the steering actually felt well weighted even if you turn in a bit lively into the corner - you can be assured of a stern footing coming out the other end.

those savings been made?' And for me that area would be the interior plastics. They are far too scratchy and are hard plastics apposed to a nice soft touch feel.

Safety:

The GS comes fitted with a whole host of safety features such as ABS + EBD, electric parking brake (EPB), seat belt height adjustment, Rear ISOFIX (x2), take me home function, side air curtain, anti rolling program (ARP), TPMS, front side airbags and front dual airbags.

To sum up:

I just can't make my mind up whether I like the GS truth be told – and that's because there are areas where the GS shines above the likes of the Kia Sportage or the Nissan Qashqai, but will it be enough to lure people into the MG showrooms? Only time will tell.

Price: £19,744 (Model: Exclusive) – including fitted options.

On the road:

Actually the GS does well here in the road test. I may have said this before – but I take the same route for all my road tests and the GS felt good. There was nothing that stood out and nothing that I really disliked, but I did sense a

Design & Technology:

I don't really like the looks of it if I'm being honest – but that's only my own opinion but I have to say that after a week in the GS, it was beginning to grow on me.

Inside you will find seating for a large family along with a decent amount of equipment like; DAB radio with MP3 compatibility and Bluetooth, automatic air conditioning, automatic headlamps, rear parking sensors/camera, intelligent stop start with hill hold function and cruise control. On the outside you will find bold lines, LED daytime running lights and 17" alloy wheels.

When you think it costs under £20,000, you have to think 'where have

Do you know the difference between an mot and a service ?

Many customers assume that when an mot is carried out on there vehicle it will ensure that the vehicle is safe and ready to use on the road,well believe it or not this in some cases this is not correct,in fact a vehicle can pass the mot and not be fit for use on the public highway !!

The mot standards are very low and are purely there to assess the condition of the vehicle on the day,on many occasions it is not uncommon to pass a vehicle with tyres and brakes just over the test standards then a week or so later the vehicle owner needing to have the parts renewed.

When we carry out an mot test,we always explain to the customer the findings and the sensible vehicle owners tend to listen and have items replaced that are just on the pass limit.

We can not emphasie enough how important it is to have a service along side an mot to ensure your vehicle is safe and fit for use on the public highway,service standards are far more robust and will highlight issues that an mot is simply not designed to do plus with most modern vehicles electrics on a service correctly done the garage will use a laptop or similar to interrogate the complex electronics to pick up any hidden issues.

Many customers are on a budget and wrongly assume that by missing a service they save money,well that is a myth , think of it like this you use the car daily,you carry children,pets,shopping,friends and you go to work,holidays,days out etc in your car and you expect all of this in total reliability and safety in a car you have spent £1000s of your hard earned cash on .Yet you are doing this without anything more than a mot test once a year in the mistaken belief the mot will ensure your safety.

We see countless customers who arrive on the back of a breakdown wagon simply because simple service checks/replacements have been missed and the customer have had there holiday,day out or trip to work ruined because they do not understand the mot scheme.

Magnussen walks away from horror smash in Belgian GP

KEVIN Magnussen was left with just minor injuries after walking away from a horrific crash in Sunday's Belgian Grand Prix. The Renault driver was travelling at around 180mph when he lost control of his car at the top of the formidable Eau Rouge corner on lap six and slammed into the tyre barriers.

By Adam Flinn

The force of the crash was so great that following a short safety car period the race had to be stopped while repairs to the barrier were carried out.

Magnussen got out of the car and was seen to be limping, before he was taken to hospital for checks.

Tests found that he had heavily bruised his left ankle, but nothing was broken and he is expected to race at this weekend's Italian Grand Prix.

"I'm feeling much better, which is very good news," said Magnussen.

"I've had several checks that show I am fit to race in Monza and I am sure I will be in the car this weekend.

"We were running in the top-10 in Belgium and I'm very motivated to repeat this again in Italy."

The crash marred what had been a very good weekend for Renault up until that point, with both cars running in the points after achieving their best qualifying positions of the season.

Magnussen was running eighth when he crashed, just behind team-mate Jolyon Palmer, who, after suffering from tyre degradation in the remainder of the race, slipped back to 15th.

Palmer said: "We had our best qualifying here, both cars had a great start and ran in the top-10 for a while.

"We could have had a strong race but the safety car pulled a lot of people back into play.

"It's a shame not to get better results in the end but this weekend has been better than we expected overall.

"I saw Kevin crash in my rear mirrors - it's not nice to see because it's a really, really fast part of the track, so I'm glad he's ok."

Five points sees Williams slip back

WILLIAMS dropped down to fifth in the constructors' championship after only managing to pick up five points from Sunday's Belgian Grand Prix.

Valtteri Bottas came eighth and Felipe Massa 10th after struggling with pitstop strategy and tyre degradation, and fall behind Force India in the standings as a result.

Bottas pitted under the safety car caused by Kevin Magnussen's crash on lap six, and dropped well down the order in the process.

Massa didn't and was running comfortably in the points for much of the race, before his tyres started to go off towards the end and he was overtaken by several cars, including Bottas.

Rob Smedley, Williams' head of performance engineering, said: "It was a disappointing race to come out with so few points.

"We just didn't have the pace to move further forward, so we will now go to Monza and try harder."

Banbury's two teams - Haas and Manor - both endured fruitless weekends as neither were able to score points.

The two Haas cars of Esteban Gutierrez and Romain Grosjean were 12th and 13th, after both had been well inside the top-10 in the early stages.

Esteban Ocon came a credible 16th in his debut for Manor, while Pascal Wehrlein retired on the opening lap after a collision with Jenson Button.

Lynn back on the podium at Spa

GP2 racer Alex Lynn picked up his fourth podium of the year as he came third in the feature race in Belgium at the weekend.

The Oxford-based driver put in a strong showing in race one, fighting his way up the order from eighth on the grid to reach the podium.

And while he did finish in the points in the sprint race on Sunday morning - bringing his DAMS car home sixth - he was later penalised for illegally using his DRS device on the opening lap.

As a result he was relegated to 10th - outside the points.

Lynn said: "Overall, Spa was a big step forward for us, and it was very satisfying to be back on a feature-race podium after a long absence.

"We had strong pace, fantastic pit stops, and it's great to be still heading in the right direction as we look forward to Monza this weekend."

Lynn is sitting seventh in the championship standings with 87 points, with just three rounds of the season remaining.

Oxford Downs and Abingdon Vale promoted as rain strikes

RAIN put a premature end to a top-of-the-table clash between Oxford Downs and Abingdon Vale but it didn't dampen celebrations as both teams won promotion to Division 1 last weekend.

Both teams shared six points to take them into the top flight, with Abingdon Vale reaching the division for the first time in their history.

The title showdown between the table's top two teams was called off midway through the first innings due to rain, with Oxford Downs on 115-5.

Henry Pickford had shown promise by claiming 41-4 before the rain came down, with Chris Sandbach almost reaching a half century for the Downs on 49 not out, along with Tom Costley on 31.

Meanwhile in Division 3, Didcot also celebrated their promotion after topping the league with a win over Banbury 3rds.

Banbury won the toss to set a lead of 91 all out, after Aiden Kammel claimed five wickets for Didcot to finish on 5-30.

The hosts then took just 21 overs to reach the total with Elliot Matthews and Ian Demain hitting 38 and 30 not out respectively.

They will play in Division 2 next year after their victory at the old Power Station ground.

Mixed fortune for Plato at Rockingham

IT was a mixed weekend for Oxfordshire's BTCC racer Jason Plato at the Rockingham races last Sunday.

After starting the weekend's races in fourth place on the grid following an encouraging qualification campaign, Plato finished third in the first race.

But a crash in the first lap of the second race forced a DNF before he finished a mid-tabled 10th in the final race of the weekend.

After the three races, Plato recorded 21 points for the Silverline Subaru BMR Racing team.

Plato collided with MG6 GT's Josh Cook after the two made contact in the opening stages of the second race.

Both drivers retired on the first lap at the Deene Hairpin, with Cook trying to pass the Subaru driver on the outside line.

Plato currently sits in eighth place on 199 points, while Colin Turkington is in sixth with an outside chance of launching a title challenge, but he remains 48 points behind Team JCT600's Sam Tordoff on 258 points.

Didcot hit back late on to clinch a draw at Wantage

TWO local rivals had to share the points as Wantage Town and Didcot Town played out a 1-1 stalemate at Alfredian Park on Monday.

A first-half goal from Mark Francis for Wantage was cancelled out by an Adam Learoyd header 15 minutes from time.

With neither side able to clinch the three points, both teams remain in the bottom third of the Evo Stik Division 1 South and West table.

Diddy gifted Wantage the lead on 17 minutes through poor defending. Kieran Collins, who attempted to head it back to Leigh Bedwell in the Didcot goal, presented the ball straight to former Didcot forward Francis to nip in front of Bedwell and roll the ball into the empty net.

The response from Didcot and Collins was immediate as he latched on to a knock-down from a long ball forward and attempted a difficult half-volley from full on 25 yards, he caught it sweetly but Edward Cavanagh was equal to it and pushed it aside for a corner.

As the half wore on, Collins was again involved as a one-two teed up Jack Longford for a long-range strike but his shot went just wide of the post as Didcot desperately tried to level.

The half-time whistle blew without further chances and another frustrating 45 minutes had passed for all of those from a Diddy perspective.

The away side largely dominated the second half but they failed to create many chances of note. Wantage defended their 1-0 lead gamely and were a constant threat with the pace of their front two proving to be a danger on the break.

Declan Benjamin went close to levelling the tie when he found himself shrugging off a defender inside the area to create a shooting chance, but he panicked and prodded a poor shot wide with the goal at his mercy.

The equaliser finally arrived on 75 minutes when a quickly taken corner found its way to Learoyd who, completely unmarked as he made his way into the box, planted a bullet header into the top corner.

The Alfredians nearly stole the points late on but Bedwell stood firm in the Diddy goal to deny a one-on-one.

Saints win sets up big finale

OXFORD Saints have reached the final of the Division II South Final with another emphatic victory over Bristol Apache with a 40-19 semi-final win.

The victory gave them a place in a final for the first time since they were crowned champions of the division in 2006.

After an unbeaten year of twelve straight victories, they have secured automatic promotion to Division I, with a crushing victory over their long-term rivals with touchdowns from star players James Walter and Tony Glover.

Glover got the Saints' first down early on after charging through defenders before running in with an 11-yard touchdown run, converted by Sam Fielden.

Good work from Kev Brooks, who ran 10 yards after Oxford had been pegged back by a penalty, was followed by a spectacular play from James Walter, who dived over after a 17-yard run-in, with Fielden remaining on target with the extra point.

He then followed it with another before the end of the first quarter, grabbing a pass from Destin Maulding to give them a 21-0 lead, which they retained through the second quarter.

In the second half, the Apache finally got on the scoreboard through quarterback Chris Jones, before Glover claimed his second score with a 15-yard run-in.

The Apache then hit back again in the third quarter with star player Jon Walters making it 28-13.

Glover then completed a hat-trick with a huge 42 yard run off the first play in the fourth quarter.

He was then matched by team-mate Walter, after a consolation score from the Apache, running in from three yards to take the final score up to 40-19.

They will complete their season finale with the Division II final against the Cambridgeshire Cats at John Charles Stadium, Leeds, on September 11.

Six without a win for City

OXFORD City's dreadful start to the National League South continued over the Bank Holiday weekend with defeats away to Chelmsford City on Saturday and at home to Gosport Borough on Monday.

The latest results make City winless in six matches, five of which were defeats.

Justin Merritt's team returned from Essex pointless after two second-half goals from Shamir Mullings and Shaun Jeffers gave the Clarets a 2-0 win at the Melbourne Stadium.

And, on Monday, City were sunk 2-1 by 10-man Gosport at the Marsh Lane Stadium.

Despite midfielder Scott Davies giving the home side the advantage on 36 minutes, goals from Josh Carmichael four minutes later and Dan Wooden, 13 minutes from time, gave the Boro the three points.

After a steady start by both sides Gosport's Mike Carter received a straight red for a foul on Jack Stevens on the half-hour.

After Davies had headed City into the lead, Carmichael levelled on 40 minutes with a free-kick from the edge of the box.

City failed to make their extra man prove decisive and the visitors took the points through Wooden with a soft goal from close in on 77 minutes as City failed to clear their lines.

City remain in 20th position.

Yellows beaten by a second-half Sheffield comeback Blades too sharp for Utd

OXFORD United were beaten by two second-half goals as Sheffield United came from behind to beat them 2-1 at Bramall Lane on Saturday.

Leading through a Kane Hemmings goal at the break, United battled hard but were finally undone by goals from Billy Sharp and James Wilson to give the Blades their first win of the season.

The Blades had former U's skipper Jake Wright at the heart of their defence and are managed by Chris Wilder, who managed Oxford between 2008 and 2014 and won promotion back to the Football League in 2010.

Sheffield were worried early on when Chris Maguire forced keeper Simon Moore to get down smartly to his right to save his 25-yard shot on 12 minutes.

Maguire then fired into the side netting from a superb cross

By George Welch

from Hemmings as United settled and zipped the ball around neatly.

Wes Thomas had another effort saved on 15 minutes and United were on top.

And, on 16 minutes, they made that count as Hemmings smashed them into the lead for his second of the campaign.

Former U's man Wright was booked for bringing down Thomas and, from the resulting freekick, Hemmings pounced to convert the rebound.

The home side came back strongly and it took a perfectly timed tackle by Joe Skarz to keep the lead intact as Matt Done looked favourite to reach a ball into the penalty area.

Simon Eastwood then tipped a 25-minute free kick over the bar after a block saw the ball loop over the seemingly stranded keeper, before Chey Dunkley made an equally goal-saving block.

The home side improved in the second half and they were back in the match on 65 minutes. A cross from the left gave captain Sharp the chance to volley past Eastwood at the back post. The goal broke the tension among the home fans and from then on there was only one winner.

Bramall Lane came to life and, despite some brave United defending, the winner came on 73 minutes.

A well-flighted dead ball was met by Wilson and the defender thumped a header past the helpless Eastwood from six yards out.

Maguire had a free kick saved by Moore on 85 minutes and the U's were denied a last minute penalty, but Appleton's men could not force an equaliser.

• Kane Hemmings, pictured here in action against Brighton in the EFL Cup last Tuesday, scored his second of the season against Sheffield United.

Oxford sign Everton midfielder Ledson

OXFORD United have signed Two club, although he is yet to midfield starlet Ryan Ledson score a senior goal.

The former Toffee joins the U's on a three-year deal and head coach Michael Appleton said it was a 'fantastic' signing for the League One club, who crashed out of the EFL Cup on Tuesday last week.

Appleton said: "He is a very exciting signing. He plays with passion and energy, he can see a pass and he knits things together in the middle of the park."

"It is fantastic that he is happy to come here to Oxford looking to prove himself, get games and build a career away from Everton."

"I think that speaks volumes for the way the club is regarded and people know that we will nurture young players the right way and always look to help them."

"He has a very bright future ahead of him."

• Eddie Pepperell in action in July

Pepperell misses cut again

ABINGDON golfer Eddie Pepperell missed the cut for the second week running on the European Tour by nearly finishing last after recording +11 in Denmark last Thursday and Friday.

Pepperell fired a first round of +4 and followed up a disheartening opening day with +7 in round two at the Made in Denmark tournament in Farsø.

Only seven golfers out of 153 finished below the Oxfordshire man.

Pepperell finished way back in tied 140th and was nine shots off the cut.

Thomas Pieters took the glory in Scandinavia at -17 with Welshman Bradley Dredge, who was grouped with Pepperell in the opening rounds, securing second place, a stroke behind the Belgian.

Pepperell will be looking to bounce back today in the Omega European Masters in Crans Montanda, Switzerland.

The world number 189 has been grouped with Scot Stephen Gallacher and Frenchman Alexander Levy.

U's return from long trip empty-handed

OXFORD United Women returned from their long trip to Durham empty-handed after being narrowly beaten 2-1 on Sunday.

First-half goals from Beth

Hepple and Jordan Atkinson put the hosts two goals up at the break and although Ella Franklin-Fraiture pulled one back for the U's in the second half they couldn't force the equaliser.

The defeat in their first match in a month makes it just one win in eight, six of those being defeats. The hosts were dominant from the first whistle and took the lead after 20 minutes from the penalty spot.

Jordan Atkinson went down in the area under a challenge from Jess Frampton and Hepple made no mistake from the spot, sending goalkeeper Demi Lambourne the wrong way and burying the spot-kick in the bottom right-hand corner. Durham doubled their advantage 11 minutes before half-time when Atkinson poked home a rebound from an excellent Lambourne save.

At the other end, Ellie Noble was denied a second goal in as many games by the woodwork. Ella Franklin-Fraiture handed the U's a lifeline just after the hour mark, bundling home following a scramble in the Durham goalmouth.

But despite a determined display, the equalising goal failed to materialise for United, who will look to bounce back away to Everton in a fortnight.

Sport Bites

Smith out of GP

MOTOR RACING: MotoGP rider Bradley Smith is out of two races, including the British Grand Prix at Silverstone on Sunday, through injury.

The 25-year-old Yamaha rider from Oxford suffered serious ligament damage to his left knee in a crash in practice at Oschersleben in Germany last Thursday.

He was airlifted to hospital and had a small operation to close the wound and was flown back to England on Saturday afternoon.

Smith has secured two podium finishes at the Silverstone Grand Prix in the past.

He will also miss the San Marino Grand Prix on September 11.

He said: "I'm back in Oxford planning what to do next."

Pata Yamaha Official World Superbike Team rider Alex Lowes, from Lincoln, has replaced him.

In the market

FOOTBALL: Yesterday was deadline day for Football League clubs.

Oxford United were in the market for a winger and another defender with summer signing Aaron Martin away from the club for personal reasons, and Curtis Nelson and Joe Skarz both injured.

Head coach Michael Appleton had until 11pm last night to do a deal.

Stars backtrack

ICE HOCKEY: Oxford City Stars have said they are backtracking on a pledge to allow their supporters to watch a pre-season match for free.

A club statement read: "Unfortunately many teams requested financial support to travel on our desired dates, in addition this pre-season, there are a number of charity matches being played which we as a club wanted to fully support."

The club say they are already looking for a free ticketed match to celebrate 32 years of ice hockey in Oxford. The Stars' season starts on September 11 against Wightlink.

Manager quits

FOOTBALL: Kidlington manager Martin Wilkinson has stepped down from his position.

A statement on the club's website read: "Kidlington FC are indebted to 'Wilkys' dedication during his time with us, during which he achieved the clubs long-term objective to compete at step 4, Southern League football."

It did not say why Wilkinson, who oversaw promotion from the UHlsport Hellenic League Premier Division last season, quit on Tuesday evening.

The club are still looking for their first Evo-Stik Southern League Division 1 Central victory this campaign.

United win but fans boycott cup opener

• Tuesday night saw the lowest attendance at the Kassam Stadium in nine years (picture courtesy of Steve Daniels)

OXFORD United started their Checkatrade Trophy campaign with a 4-2 win against Exeter City on Tuesday night – but the 1,575 fans in attendance was the third lowest at the Kassam Stadium in its competitive history.

United's lowest attendance at the Kassam is 1,521 versus Leyton Orient in the Football League Trophy (the same competition) in 2005 and Tuesday night's gate was the third lowest in nine years.

Only 98 fans from Exeter made the five and a half hour round-trip from Devon.

On the pitch, West Brom loanee Tyler Roberts bagged his first Oxford goal and a Chris Maguire penalty gave Michael Appleton's men a 2-1 lead at halftime against League Two Exeter.

In the second half, Ryan Taylor scored his first goal since last November and Alex MacDonald converted his first of the season to round off the victory.

Injury-struck Exeter did give the hosts a scare though, with Matty Jay and Liam McAlindon scoring on 43 and 61 minutes.

But the main talking point was the lack of fan interest across the country in the newly designed Football League Trophy.

Supporters across the country voted with their feet after Under-23 sides from the Premier League and Championship were allowed to take on League One and Two teams in the revamped lower league trophy for the first time.

And the opening night of the Checkatrade Trophy – known as the Johnstone's Paint Trophy last year – saw record low attendances as fans boycotted the new look competition.

Supporters up and down the country were encouraged to boycott the matches, with the hashtag #BTeam-Boycott being used on Twitter to urge fans to stay away from games.

The restructured competition is seen as the first step towards allowing B teams into the Football League.

However the FA is keen to see young talent develop through competitive matches partly in the hope that the players will improve the England squad in the future.

Oxford fans took to Twitter to comment on the small attendance.

Nathan Wallington tweeted: "Far too many there tonight. I'm actually disappointed with those that turned up."

Lewis Jackson questioned: "Why have people turned up?"

Andy Dunn commented: "Embarrassed for those that turned up. #Clueless #YourHurtingOurClubsFuture."

Other fans say there were even less than the official figure.

With only 1,500 turning up at Oxford, other clubs also obliged with some dismal attendances for a number of clubs.

Just 1,504 fans attended former Premier League side Bolton's defeat to Everton's youngsters – a record for the Macron Stadium.

Elsewhere, there were just 392 present for Fleetwood's clash with Blackburn, 461 at Wimbledon's win over Swansea and only 585 turned out for Accrington against Crewe.

Everton, Norwich, Swansea, Stoke, Reading, Southampton, Wolves, West Ham, Blackburn, West Brom, Derby, Middlesbrough, Leicester and Brighton all fielded Under-23 sides – there were wins for four of them.

League Two clubs Wycombe and Exeter both named their managers on their bench with Gareth Ainsworth even coming on for the final few moments for Wycombe.

Clearer hearing at the lowest prices

Want to hear natural sound? Our new CLEAR hearing aid family lets you hear as close to natural sound as possible.

CLEAR hearing aids can communicate wirelessly with each other - just like two ears do. This means that all the functions in your hearing aids are adjusted instantly depending on your listening environment. Meaning that even when soft sounds change to louder sounds, you still hear with clarity.

CLEAR also meets the challenge of hearing from different directions. It is the only Widex hearing aid that lets you focus on sound in selected directions without turning your head - perfect if you're driving, for example.

And combined with a unique range of wireless accessories, some of the more difficult listening situations, such as watching television, listening to music or using your mobile phone, are made easier.

Wearing spectacles with hearing aids can be uncomfortable and awkward. Some people also find it irritating and unnatural to have a hearing aid in their ear. The ideal solution to these problems may be spectacle hearing aids. Change your personal glasses into a hearing system for an individual, discreet, comfortable solution.

Ask about our range of spectacle hearing aids including live demonstrations at our Better Hearing Exhibition Event.

Your choice made simple

It is important to remember that we are all individual and so require individual needs. The Better Hearing Clinic gives you the opportunity to learn more about your hearing loss and the various options that are available to your particular requirements in order to make your choice as clear and simple as possible. This is due to our vast experience and extensive range of hearing aids available on the market.

We always ensure that your better hearing selection is comfortable to wear and easy to use.

How Better Hearing Clinic Events benefit our customers

We are delighted to be of service to our community

"My wife kept telling me to have my hearing checked, so I went to my local Exhibition. I returned home with a full understanding of my hearing problem and I've not stopped wearing my aids since."

"The aids which I had fitted at the Hearing Exhibition are so small and neat that nobody has even noticed that I'm wearing them. The best thing is that I am hearing much clearer even in company."

35 years
expertise

Because the Better Hearing Exhibitions are totally independent, we are able to offer our clients the latest technology from leading manufacturers like Siemens, Phonak, GN ReSound, Widex, Starkey and many more.

THE BEST JUST GOT SMALLER.

Two main concerns people with hearing difficulties have are being unable to hear and understand speech on the TV and whilst on the phone.

- Loop System provision
- Increased amplification allowing you to hear even the softest of voices clearly
- Even the ringtone has volume control
- Allows you to hear speech even when there are annoying background sounds
- Comfortable, wireless headset
